

- Work with a group of three that you have not yet worked with. Create a presentation on one of the problems some teens encounter. You can choose from the list below or choose a topic of your own. If you choose a topic of your own, it must be approved prior to beginning the project.

Possible ideas:

- Anorexia
- Bulimia
- Teen pregnancy
- Alcoholism
- Drug addiction
- Depression
- Anxiety
- Anger management
- Sexual identity crisis
- High risk seeking behaviour
- Self-mutilation
- STI's

Your presentation may take the form of:

- informational pamphlet
- website
- PowerPoint/Prezi/Popplet
- Glogster

- Your presentation should include the following information:

- Description of issue
- Statistics indicating prevalence of issue
- Causes
- Possible treatments
- A list of local (Lower Mainland) services that address your issue
  - Websites
  - Phone numbers
  - E-mail addresses
  - Addresses
- A list of sources (websites, books, magazines etc...)

Evaluation:

Description:	/6	Services:	/6
Statistics:	/6	Sources:	/6
Causes:	/6	Design:	/6
Treatments:	/6

Total: /42

Resources:

- You must use some print and some online resources
  - Online resources must come primarily from the available databases – it is recommended that you use as many recent, peer-reviewed sources as possible
  - The list of your resources (you may use MS Word or an online bibliography maker.)
- a) EBSCOhost databases:      no password necessary from school
- EBSCO gr 9-adult
  - Consumer Health Complete

Ask your teacher-librarian for:

- Remote UserID: _____      Remote password: _____
- b) Free trial EBSCO Psychology and Behavioural Sciences Database
- Available only until the end of January 2012.
  - Ask your teacher-librarian for UserID: _____ & password: _____
  - Once you log in, choose EBSCO Research databases, and you will see the Psychology Collection.
- c) Go to the Planning Page from the school library homepage (left menu). On the right menu, choose your topic and find suggested links.
- d) Print materials
- search through REMSS Library Catalogue (Click on the Mountains Icon, then choose RE Mountain, then choose the catalogue tab).
  - check recommended materials
  - browse 615-17 section

ALL ABOVE RESOURCES AVAILABLE THROUGH THE R E MOUNTAIN LIBRARY WEBSITE:

<http://mountainlibrary.weebly.com>